Mr. Philmore Brown,
Laurel Hill, N. C.

Dear Sir:

The following are the items that were missing from the room occupied by your Son and Fred Wilson his room mate. The team went on the road for two weeks and left James in Newark for medical care. Upon the Teams return, Mr. Wilson found these articles missing and James Brown gone: Two(2) Felt Hats, one(1) Green and one(1) tan, size 7 1/4, one suitcase from which he had torn the lock in order to get in it, four(4) shirts, one brown, one blue, one white, one rust, all Polo Shirts large size, four suits of underwear.

He also took the money Wilson left for room rent and did not pay the landlady.

He also took my Baseball Uniform, which he has absolutely no right to. It is the property of the Ball Club, a suit, stockings, cap and sweatshirt.

I expect you to send these things back at once, or I will have to take steps to get them otherwise.

Yours very truly,

EM:CCJ

The above information is correct.

Signed,

FRED WILSON.
